THE NEW GENERATION: Kids interview artists

Kids interview the artist César Saldivar, a Mexican talented photographer. What did they learn? Secrets of the genius? Just kidding... They learned about his work, creative process, and artistic journey — but most importantly, they learned not to give up.

Because sometimes, the greatest gifts in life aren't found in the plans, but in the detours.

When things don't seem to be going right, remember: that's when it starts getting interesting. Enjoy when things don't go according to plan — if you knew the ending, it wouldn't be worth the watch.

It's been going viral lately — kids interviewing public figures — so we joined the trend!

CHECK OUT WHAT YOU MISSED

DARKROOM NIGHTS: Private event

Because art isn't just what you see—

We've been keeping a close eye on who's showing up to our events— and in honor of our ever-growing artistic family, we created a night full of fun and creativity. Introducing DARKROOM NIGHT: a celebration inspired by the classic red room where photographs come to life. With the amazing support of Fincas, Rumba Rebel, and 1800 Tequila, we served custom drinks inspired by light, shadows, and camera settings. The night was filled with surprises, including several raffles, and unforgettable moments.

Although the gallery took a pause over Semana Santa, the art kept moving.

We were overwhelmed with joy to see how many of you shared pieces from the gallery in their new homes. From sunlit living rooms to faraway cities, each work found a space to breathe, to be seen, and to be felt.

*Travel with us as we trace the journey of these artworks — from our walls to yours.
Where did the art go? Let's find out.*
