A NEW CHAPTER?

WHERE THE PAST BECOMES THE FUTURE—UNFRAMED

UNFRAMED

Why Unframed? Because not everything hangs on a wall. Our gallery moves beyond rigid structures, embracing fluidity, spontaneity, and constant evolution. With so many exhibitions, one-of-a-kind events, and artistic moments, it's easy to fall behind.

That's why we created Unframed—a monthly recap of what's happened, what's happening, and what's coming next. Stay in the know, keep up with the movement, and never miss a moment of art.

& CHECK OUT WHAT YOU MISSED

LUIS SÁNCHEZ: Maquinas del ensueño

On July 17th, we opened our doors to celebrate a new chapter at Arte Actual — and we did so with a full house. We were thrilled to share an exhibition that pushed boundaries and brought something truly different and innovative to our space. Thank you to everyone who joined us and made the night unforgettable.

If you didn't get a chance to experience the works in person, we'd love to show them to you privately.

The exhibition is still on view at the gallery, and we're happy to schedule a one-on-one visit tailored just for you.

*Come see what everyone's still talking about.
Because art doesn't end with the opening night.*

The Unveiling: Sebastian Bours & Pablo Emilio Take Center Stage

On Wednesday, March 11th the second event for Retratos: Lo sublime en la incomodidad successfully showcased the final pieces by emerging artists Sebastián Bours and Pablo Emilio, allowing the audience to appreciate the results of their creative process.

UNFRAMED

We collaborated with a corporate group celebrating its 50th anniversary, commissioning sculptor Alberto Vargas to create unique pieces for the occasion.

On July 24, the P/A works were delivered to the brilliant minds behind the project — a lasting symbol of their legacy.

They came before the world knew their names. Join us this Thursday, August 14th, for a powerful reunion with the past—a return to the roots that shaped our future.

The Kuitca Grant and the Argentines Who Shaped a Generation
In the early 1990s, in a workshop tucked away in La Boca, Buenos Aires, artist Guillermo Kuitca launched what would become one of the most influential artistic residencies in Latin America: the Kuitca Grant. Though still informal in its early years, the program brought together a group of young Argentine artists who, over the next three decades, would become key figures in contemporary art. Artists like Magdalena Jitrik and Graciela Hasper explored abstraction through political or emotional frameworks; Alfredo Londaibere and Sergio Bazán infused their work with spirituality, music, and personal narratives; and Fabián Burgos, with his kinetic, optical precision, challenged how we see and experience art.

From urban installations to murals in Miami and exhibitions in European museums, these artists not only pushed the boundaries of painting, drawing, and printmaking — they expanded what Argentine art could mean on a global scale.

Thanks to the visionary eye of Guillermo Sepúlveda, founder of Arte Actual Galería in Monterrey, many of these works arrived in Mexico just as these careers were taking off. This exhibition brings together some of those original pieces from the Guillermo Sepúlveda Collection — silent witnesses to a time when everything was just beginning.

LET'S GET YOU UPDATED

What's Next at Arte Actual Galería

Our exhibition Ecos del Sur opens on Thursday, August 14th, with an inaugural event that revisits the early works of Argentine artists from the first generation of the Kuitca Grant — a historic moment reactivated through the Guillermo Sepúlveda Collection.

Later this month, stay tuned for a surprise activation in collaboration with a very special brand — something unexpected, fresh, and worth showing up for.

And don't miss our upcoming collaboration with Two Feet Undr and Arte Actual Galería, featuring artist Luis Sánchez. New limited-edition merch is on the way — bold, raw, and unapologetically current. ONLINE ONLY
